

RESOURCES FOR HOMEOWNERS AND HOMEBUYERS

The Rockefeller University has prepared this list of governmental resources for current homeowners and prospective homebuyers who need assistance in protecting and finding affordable housing. We hope this list, which compiles federal and New York State and City resources in one place, will be helpful to homeowners and homebuyers by offering assistance as they consider their housing options. Please go to the links and governmental websites for additional information.

For current homeowners who need assistance:

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has a helpful overview and guide to owning and maintaining a home in New York. This website outlines potential issues and where to get help and find resources. See:

https://www.hud.gov/states/new\_york#Homeownership

New York State has programs to assist homeowners, including:

- Funding home improvement projects through NYS Homes and Community Renewal (HCR), see: <https://hcr.ny.gov>
- Access to free, qualified mortgage assistance relief services (e.g., foreclosure avoidance, loan modification, refinancing, credit issues, etc.) through NYS Attorney General's Homeowner Protection Program (HOPP), see: <https://ag.ny.gov/protect-our-homes>
- Loans to eligible homeowners at risk of foreclosure and unable to find assistance from other foreclosure prevention programs through NYS Mortgage Assistance Program, funded by the NYS Attorney General, see: <https://hcr.ny.gov/homeowners>
- Assistance for homeowners at risk of, or in, foreclosure through NYS Department of Financial Services' Foreclosure Relief Unit, see: <https://hcr.ny.gov/foreclosure-prevention>
- Other helpful information to homeowners through NYS Department of Financial Services' Homeowners Resource Center, see: https://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumers/help\_for\_homeowners

New York City also has programs to assist homeowners, including:

- Refinancing, selling, or paying off a mortgage purchased through a City Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) program, see: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/services-and-information/mortgage-servicing.page>
- Foreclosure prevention and counseling assistance through the Center for New York City Neighborhood, see: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/services-and-information/foreclosure-prevention.page>
- Saving money by going green through NYC Greenhouse, see: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/buildings/property-or-business-owner/green-roofs-solar-panels.page>

For first time homebuyers who need assistance:

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has a helpful overview and guide to buying a home in New York. This website outlines potential issues and where to get help and find resources. See:

https://www.hud.gov/states/new\_york#Homeownership

The State of New York Mortgage Agency (SONYMA) has mortgage assistance programs designed to make a home purchase more affordable. For an overview of the SONYMA Programs, see: <https://hcr.ny.gov/sonyma>

The New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) also assists prospective homebuyers in finding affordable housing, see:

and <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/services-and-information/find-affordable-housing.page>

Resources include:

- Financing Programs for homeowners, see: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/services-and-information/new-construction-financing.page>
- Homebuyer Programs through which HPD provides homeownership opportunities to families within designated income guidelines, see: <https://housingconnect.nyc.gov/PublicWeb/>
- HomeFirst Down Payment Assistance Program, see: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/services-and-information/homefirst-down-payment-assistance-program.page>
- HPD promotes quality and affordability of NYC's housing for low and middle income families, see: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/services-and-information/area-median-income.page>
- Housing Development Fund Corporation (HDFC), which makes available affordable housing for low income families, see: <https://hcr.ny.gov/housing-development-fund-corporation-hdfc>
